This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

REPORT

STATE LIBRARIAN

OF THE

STATE OF IOWA,

FOR THE YEARS 1880 AND 1881.

[PRINTED BY ORDER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.]

DES MOINES:
F. M. MILLS, STATE PRINTER.
1881.

An agricultural department, including horticulture and domestic animals, has been added. In this connection, I would respectfully suggest that a number of copies of the reports of our State Agricultural Society be given the library for distribution to other libraries. I am informed by Mr. Noyes, librarian of the Brooklyn Mercantile Library, that inquiry is made at his office, almost daily, for the agricultural reports of the Western States, by immigrants and others desiring homes in the West; to such inquirers, Iowa is a sealed book.

The crowded condition of the library has been the burden of library reports (as well as of the librarian) for lo, these many years, and what more can be said! Every available foot of space in the library-room and in the duplicate-room down stairs has been filled by additional shelving.

Most of the congressional documents and files of newspapers have been placed in the duplicate-room; persons desiring to consult them have the pleasure of standing edgewise between shelves and boxes and possibly removing one or two rows from the shelf before finding the desired volume. I have known instances of gentlemen losing their reverence for books through such experience, especially when the thermometer stands at 15° below zero. In the library proper, shelving has been placed upon the tops of the cases and crowded with books, at the risk of ruining the bindings and killing or maiming the person who attempts the dangerous ascent of short ladders and narrow shelves to reach them. Much valuable time is wasted in the handling of books, which can be obviated only by more room. We not only lack space, but a place of security against loss by fire, tornadoes, etc. The destruction of this invaluable collection of books, which may occur any windy day, would be a calamity from which our State would not recover for generations, if ever. In view of the many dangers surrounding the library, the want of room and the extra work and waste of time resulting therefrom, the injury to the books, etc., etc., would it not be well to provide that the library-room in the new capitol be finished at once and the library removed thereto?

Very respectfully,

MRS. S. B. MAXWELL,

State Librarian.

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT.

OFFICE OF THE STATE LIBRARIAN,
DES MOINES, July 1, 1883.

To HIS EXCELLENCY, BUREN R. SHERMAN, Governor of Iowa:

SIR—I have the honor to submit herewith the following report of this department of the public service for the period beginning October 1, 1881, and ending June 30, 1883.

At date of my last report the whole number of books in the library, exclusive of duplicates and pamphlets, was.....		20,468
Additions made since are:
By purchase.....	1,140
By donations and exchange.....	946
Total additions.....	2,086
Whole number in the library.....		22,554

In accordance with chapter 175, Acts of the Nineteenth General Assembly, the present biennial period has been reduced to twenty-one months, which accounts for the seeming decrease in the number of accessions to our library.

The unexpended balance of the appropriation for the term will be used to pay for books which are ordered, but which, by especial arrangement with dealers, will not be received until after our removal to the new building.

All of our sets of law reports, including the British Colonial, have been completed, with the exception of the East Indian, which as above shown have been ordered. There is also missing from our set of Vermont reports, volume 7, of which I make especial mention here in the hope that it may meet the eye of some librarian or other person who may possibly be able to supply the same. I have made diligent effort to procure it from the authorities of that State, from their publishers, and from the various publishers and dealers of other States, but have not yet succeeded.

While much attention has been given to the law department it will be noticed by the appended catalog that the general library has not been neglected.

The "Iowa Department," spoken of in my last report, has received a number of valuable accessions with the promise of more to follow; the use of a number of valuable historical manuscripts has been promised the library, whenever the history of the State shall be written.

For the history of the present time we shall have access to the newspapers of the State, a large number of which has been kindly donated by their editors or publishers. Want of room and time has prevented a more general ingathering of our home literature, though a generous response has been made to the call for the same.

A number of interesting and valuable political pamphlets have been donated to the library by Mr. C. D. Collet, of the "Diplomatic Review Company," London, England.

A catalog of books which should be in the various divisions of the general library, has been submitted to the trustees and approved and a special appropriation for their purchase should be made by the General Assembly.

The library has grown to such vast proportions, and is in such constant and popular use, that there should be allowed a special attendant, whose duty it shall be to take the books from the shelves when desired for use by readers, and replace the same when used, and thus keep the books always in order; to see that no book is missing from a set; to show visitors—other than those whose object is to consult the books—through the library, and, when not otherwise engaged, to assist in such clerical duties as may at times be necessary. It seems to me that after the removal to the New Capitol, such extra assistance will be imperatively necessary; the expense thereof will be quite inconsiderable, and I respectfully suggest that an appropriation for such service be made by the General Assembly.

Very respectfully,

MRS. S. B. MAXWELL,
State Librarian.

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT.

OFFICE OF THE STATE LIBRARIAN,
DES MOINES, July 1, 1885.

To His Excellency, Buren R. Sherman, Governor of Iowa:

Sir—If the following report of this department seem unusually voluminous, it is because the past biennial term has been somewhat eventful and important in the history of the Library.

The Twentieth General Assembly convened on the 14th day of January, 1884. On the 19th of the same month (which was Saturday) we commenced the removal of the books to the elegant quarters designed for them in the new Capitol; on the 28th they were all in place—the law permanently, the general temporarily—and ready for use, the transference having having occupied eight days. But at no time, so far as I am aware, during the removal, were members of the Legislature denied access to the books desired for examination. The main floor and one gallery only were shelved, which necessitated a second moving of the general library after the completion of the remaining galleries. Considerable inconvenience and delay in cataloguing and permanent arrangement has been occasioned by the necessary joint occupancy of the Library with the workmen engaged in finishing the interior.

The books in the general library have been arranged by classes—Mr. F. B. Perkins' classification, used in the San Francisco Public Library, with modifications to suit our needs, having been adopted.

Upon our removal to the new room, the following "Rules and Regulations for the Government of the Iowa State Library," were adopted by the Board of Trustees:

1. The Library shall be kept open every day except Sundays and the legal holidays. During the sessions of the General Assembly and the winter terms of the Supreme Court, the Library shall be kept open from 8 A. M. to 12 M., and from 2 P. M. to 6 P. M. During the summer terms of the Supreme Court, the Library shall open half an hour earlier. At all other times, the hours shall be from 9 A. M. to 12 M., and from 2 P. M. to 5 P. M.

2. The State Library is one of reference, and not a circulating library; no books can be taken from it, except as authorized by law.

3. All persons of proper age are permitted to visit the Library and examine and read the books, periodicals, etc. Children under fifteen years of age, unaccompanied by parent or guardian, are not entitled to the privileges of the Library, except at the discretion of the Librarian.

4. Any person wishing to obtain any book in the general library, for perusal or reference, must make application at the desk of the Librarian. The books thus received must be returned to the Librarian's desk. The Librarian will exercise a proper discrimination as to the delivery of such books as she may think liable to be injured.

5. No person, except the Librarian or assistants, shall be permitted to replace upon the shelf any book or other publication.

6. No person allowed in any of the galleries without holding a permit from the Librarian.

7. Writing in or marking books or periodicals, tearing or turning down leaves, and all other defacements, are strictly forbidden. Any person defacing a book or periodical shall pay to the Librarian the price of the book injured.

8. No talking above a whisper in any part of the Library.

9. No smoking will be permitted, and it is respectfully requested that gentlemen will abstain from chewing tobacco in the Library.

10. There shall be no lunching or refreshments of any kind taken in the Library.

11. Copying from books, other than law books, must be done in pencil.

12. During the sessions of the Supreme Court or of the General Assembly, the Governor, Attorney-General, and members of the General Assembly may take to any room in the Capitol, any law book; and lawyers in attendance on the Supreme Court in the Capitol will be permitted to take such books as they may desire, into the Supreme Court room.

13. State officers and their deputies may take to their respective offices such books as they may require for reference in the discharge of their duties; the same to be returned within three days.

14. No person shall be allowed access to the Library at any time except in the presence of the Librarian or assistants.

15. Any person violating the rules of the State Library, may be prohibited by the Librarian from the use and privileges of the Library; and for misbehavior and willful violation of the rules relating to good order in the Library and the preservation of the books, may be summarily ejected from the Library.

By section 1, chapter 191, acts of the Twentieth General Assembly, there was appropriated the sum of $6,000, for the purchase of miscellaneous books. A carefully prepared list was submitted to and approved by a committee appointed by the Board of Trustees to examine said list. The books have been purchased, and most of them catalogued and placed upon the shelves, ready for use. Vouchers for the money thus expended are filed with the Governor, and a statement and catalogue of the books, appended to this report. Before the meeting of the next General Assembly the balance of the new books will have been catalogued and a shelf catalogue of all the books in the general library made. There is now such a list of the law text books.

A valuable collection of autographs and photographs, known as the "Aldrich Collection," has been donated to the Library by the Hon. Charles Aldrich, of Webster City, and a handsome and substantial case for its preservation, has been provided by the State.

A place has been provided for memorial volumes and donations solicited. Mr. Aldrich has responded in a handsome set of Bunyan's complete works in 3 volumes, by Geo. Offer; and a handsomely bound copy of Baxter's Saints' Rest, edition of 1658, all of which are dedicated to his father and mother.

Another valuable donation—50 copies of "A Record of the Commemoration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Settlement of Iowa, held at Burlington, June 1, 1883," has been made by the Hons. Jno. G. Foote and the late Gen. A. C. Dodge. Copies have been sent to the State and Territorial libraries.

Hon. F. D. Jackson, Secretary of State, has kindly aided in completing as far as possible, some of our duplicate sets of State publications, and has also provided the Library with a number of Mr. Bushnell's "Iowa Resources" for exchange with other libraries.

Several donations have been received since the appended catalogue was put in type, among them a complete set of the constitution, digests, laws and proceedings of the Supreme Lodge A. O. U. W., from its organization to date, from Supreme Recorder M. W. Sackett, of Meadville, Pa.; an acquisition to the Iowa department by the author Mr. Nicholas Baylies, of "Political Controversies between the United States and Great Britain"; The Northwestern Journal of Education, from the publishers, and to the list of newspapers have been added: The Cedar Rapids Daily Republican; The Daily Hawkeye Blade and the Signet (weekly), published at Grinnell. By an over sight the Hancock County Tribune; Morning Sun Herald and Spirit Lake Democrat were omitted from the printed list.

A number of old, out of print laws of several of the States has been obtained by exchange of duplicate volumes, which have been accumulating and were useless except as exchanges.

At date of my last report, the whole number of books in the Library, exclusive of duplicates and pamphlets, was.		22,554
Additions made since are:
By purchase	4,487
By donation and exchange	1,119
Total additions	5,606
Whole number in the library		28,160
Number of law books added		1,642
Number in all other classes added		3,964

The term has been one of unusual hard work, and it will require several more years of extra hard labor to put the library in harmony with its surroundings. A catalogue should be printed, and I respectfully suggest that the coming legislature, make the necessary order and appropriation for the same; also an appropriation for the rebinding of some of the old books which by the unavoidable extraordinary wear and tear consequent upon being crowded into the very close quarters in the old building, if not soon attended to will be past saving.

I would also suggest, that since the publication of Poole's index to periodical literature, the periodicals indexed make a most valuable addition to any library and especially so to a reference library, such as ours, and that they ought to be placed upon our shelves.

It was supposed that after our "settlement" in the new rooms, less assistance would be required than at first, but trial proves this to have been an erroneous supposition. The constant accumulation of books; their care from the time of ordering until placed upon the shelves; the large files of newspapers and periodicals to be kept unbroken; the preparation for binding; the constantly increasing number of seekers after information, besides the thousands of sightseers; in short the innumerable details appreciated only by librarians, require the constant and unceasing labor of every member of the Library Force, and I respectfully suggest that the same number of assistants be allowed the Librarian, especially during the printing of the catalogue.

I have taken the liberty to append a short historical sketch of the State Library, and a list of libraries in the State, with some statistics, and will also take the liberty to suggest to the Twenty-first General Assembly that our State publications might be better preserved by the formation in every county, of a county library to be in the custody of the county auditor, or other county officer, the board of supervisors to constitute a board of trustees of such library. To these libraries complete sets of the State publications (including the Supreme Court Reports, which are now sent to the county auditors), should be sent and preserved. Under the present law for the distribution of public documents, very few complete sets are to be found in the State.

I append as usual, the financial statement, with other appendixes as indicated in the table of contents.

Very respectfully,

MRS. S. B. MAXWELL,
State Librarian

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE LIBRARY.

The twenty-fifth Congress, at its second session, passed the following act:

"CHAP. 96—An act to divide the Territory of Wisconsin, and establish the Territorial government of Iowa."

Section 18 of said act provides "That the sum of five thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended by and under the direction of the Governor of said Territory of Iowa, in the purchase of a library, to be kept at the seat of government for the accommodation of the Governor, legislative assembly, judges, secretary, marshal and attorney-general of said Territory, and such other persons as the Governor and legislative assembly shall direct."

The first legislative assembly of the Territory was begun and held at Burlington, November 12, 1838, and Governor Robert Lucas in his message to this assembly, in reference to the proposed library, says that, previous to leaving Ohio, he, with the assistance of several literary friends, had made out a catalogue of such standard works as are deemed most important as the foundation of a public library, and commissioned an agent in Cincinnati to purchase the books, and this having been done, and the books expected in a short time, he recommended to the assembly the appointment of a librarian, defining his duties, who should be the custodian of the library.

The books selected were standard biographical, historical, legal and miscellaneous works, many of which are still in the library, and in addition to these Dr. O. Fairchild, of Cincinnati, presented the library with a valuable set of maps.

As his suggestions were not acted upon, Gov. Lucas caused to be fitted up a room on Jefferson street, belonging to Mr. J. S. David, and, April 10, 1839, commissioned Mr. T. S. Parvin, his private secretary, as librarian. This commission is framed and now hangs in the State Library, the gift of Mr. Parvin.

He soon resigned his office, and Mr. Charles Weston was made temporary librarian.

In 1840 the second legislative assembly passed an act for the appointment of a librarian, defining his duties, and Mr. Morgan Reno, treasurer of the Territory, was appointed by the Governor to discharge said duties at a salary of $210, being required to give bond in the sum of $5,000.

The library was kept open every day during the sessions of the legislature and Supreme Court, and during the remainder of the year, four hours on each Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

The fourth legislative assembly met in Iowa City, the seat of government having been removed there, but the capitol not being ready for occupancy, temporary quarters were prepared for the State officers and the library.

The first report of the librarian is that of Mr. Reno to the fifth legislative assembly, in 1842–3. The first catalogue of the library is a small volume of eighteen pages, containing the titles of about sixteen hundred volumes, classed as follows: "Biography, history, jurisprudence, reports, laws, medicine, miscellaneous, periodicals, political, etc., poetry, science, etc, theological, voyages and travels, and maps."

In 1846, L. B. Patterson was appointed librarian by the first general assembly of the State, at a salary of $150, and the bond was reduced to $2,000.

At the session in 1848 this was made a circulating or rather a peregrinating library, as the judges of the Supreme and District Courts were allowed to take twenty volumes of law books to use in the courts of their respective districts.

In 1851 an appropriation of $500 was made to be expended by the Governor in books for the library.

In 1852 Mr. Israel Kister was appointed librarian, and in his report to the fourth general assembly he gives the number of bound volumes at 2,627, with 1,100 unbound volumes, documents, pamphlets, etc. The library had now been removed to more commodius quarters in the new capitol.

In 1852 a second appropriation of $500 for the purchase of books was made, and Martin L. Morris, who succeeded Mr. Kister as treasurer and librarian, reported to the fifth general assembly, in 1854–55, a list of the books purchased therewith. This legislature also appropriated $1,000 for the purchase of books, and passed an act forbidding the removal of the books from the seat of government. The librarian was also directed to number and label the books, and to make an alphabetical catalogue and report the same to the Governor to be printed.

In the fall of 1857 the library was brought from Iowa City, in charge of Mr. John Pattee, Auditor of State, who was also librarian. The 3,000 volumes which the library then contained, were deposited in a room prepared for that purpose in the capitol, and shortly after Mr. L. I. Coulter was made librarian.

In 1858 the legislature, in making an appropriation for the pay of a clerk to the secretary of the Board of Education, provided that said clerk should also act as librarian, and this proviso appeared in each appropriation for ten years succeeding. The report of Mr. Coulter, in 1862, shows the number of volumes to be 6,433.

In 1866, 100 copies of the Supreme Court reports were given to the library for exchange, and at the suggestion of Gov. Kirkwood $3,000 were appropriated to be expended by the judges in the purchase of law books. With this sum 744 volumes were added to the library, making the total number at this time 8,216.

In 1868 the demands of the two offices became such that one person could not do justice to both, and the legislature authorized the appointment of a librarian at a salary of $150, but failed to provide for the payment of this sum. The Census Board unwilling to see the library closed on this account decided to employ an additional janitor at a compensation of $2.00 per day and place the library in his custody. Thereupon Governor Merrill appointed a young man by the name of John C. Merrill—not a relative, however—as librarian. This appointment was really the beginning of the library as a library. Thenceforth it was kept open all day, Mr. Merrill devoting his entire time to the work and interests of the library. Nearly thirty years had left it in a very undesirable condition. Many of the volumes were lost or injured, and no systematic arrangement seemed ever to have been thought of. Mr. Merrill, however, brought order out of chaos by renumbering the entire collection and classifying and rearranging the books. He introduced the card catalogue, and thus laid the foundation for the preservation of and access to information otherwise inaccessible.

In 1870 the legislature made the judges of the Supreme Court "Commissioners of the State Library," with authority to manage and control the same. An appropriation was made for the purchase of several hundred volumes of G. Greene's Reports to be exchanged for the benefit of the law department. Many of the English, Irish and Scotch Reports were purchased about this time from the proceeds of the sale of Iowa Reports, and an effort was made to complete the sets of American Reports, and many law treatise, state papers, etc., were added to the library. "Young as Mr. Merrill was, for his really brilliant career of three years ended as he became of age, he ranked as one of the very best librarians in the country. But ambition and overwork proved too much for his physical frame, and in September, 1871, he passed from the life of earth to that of eternity." When Mr. Merrill left the work in September, 1871, the library contained 14,079 volumes.

Mrs. Ada North was appointed by Governor Merrill to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the librarian. The compensation still came through the holding of a janitorship, but in 1872 the law concerning the library was revised, the office of State Librarian created with a salary of $1,200 per year, and the term fixed at two years. A board of trustees was created to have supervision over it, consisting of the Governor, Secretary of State, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and the judges of the Supreme Court, an annual appropriation of $1,000 to be expended by the Governor in the purchase of new books for the library, and all the Supreme Court reports remaining after the distribution by the Secretary of State was made, were to be given to the library to be disposed of by the trustees for law books. The librarian, the same year, made a catalogue of the books, showing the entire number to be 14,500. "From this time there was more attention paid to the general library, though there was no cessation in the effort to make the State's collection of law books complete, and this effort, begun at the instance of Judge Cole and supervised by him so long as he remained on the bench, finally succeeded in making it one of the five best collections of law books in America."

Mrs. North retained the position of State Librarian until 1878, when she was succeeded by the present incumbent, Mrs. S. B. Maxwell. Mrs. North continued the good work begun by Mr. Merrill, and in her first reports she says that the English, Irish and Scotch reports and statutes are complete to date. This was an error, but owing to the imperfect catalogues of the publishers at that time it was impossible to know what constituted a set of foreign reports. I believe, however, that we now lack only one report, the 7 Vermont.

The East India Reports were but recently received and will be catalogued as soon as time will permit. My predecessor's last report shows 15,836 volumes, exclusive of duplicates and pamphlets. The present number is about 27,000.

In 1880 an assistant librarian was authorized at a salary of $500 a year, the cash appropriation was increased to $2,000, but the supply of Supreme Court Reports, which had been a good source of revenue, had been cut off.

In 1882 the appropriation was again increased, this time to $3,000.

In January, 1884, the library was removed to the new quarters in the west wing on the second floor of the new capitol. This room is 53 feet wide, 108 feet long and 45 feet high. It has four galleries, reached by winding stairs at either end of the room, is finished in ash and chestnut, with marble wainscoting and pilasters, and has an encaustic tile floor. Including duplicates, there are over 40,000 bound volumes already upon the shelves; the full capacity of the library is about one hundred thousand volumes.

The Twentieth General Assembly made a special appropriation of $6,000 for the purchase of books for the general library, and this has been expended in the purchase of the best books in every department of knowledge. This legislature also authorized the librarian to employ a second assistant at a compensation of $500 and a messenger at $300.

The library contains twelve rooms, three in each corner, which have been fitted up as a librarian's office, work-room, cloak-room and private room for the judges on the main floor; on the first gallery, what I call the art room, a memorial room, a room for law periodicals and a newspaper room; the gallery above the newspaper room is fitted with spring rollers for maps; upon the next floor, immediately above this, is another newspaper room and another room for maps. Four of these rooms do duty as duplicate rooms.

Hon. Charles Aldrich, of Webster City, has donated to the library a large and interesting collection of autographs, photographs, etc., which has been placed in the library in elegant cases prepared especially for that purpose.

I have made an effort to rescue from oblivion the rapidly vanishing scraps of the early history of the State, and also to collect everything written by Iowa authors. I have what I call the Iowa Department, in regard to which I can do no better than to quote from Mr. Perkins' notice of my last biennial report:

"The department was established over two years ago for the special purpose of rescuing from oblivion the material scattered here and there, throwing light on the early history of the State. The result has been the collection and classification of a large number of manuscripts, pamphlets, records, old newspaper files, etc., which will be invaluable to the future historian of the State. * * * * In the same department there is an interesting and very complete collection of the books and writings of Iowa authors. * * * The exhibit of Iowa authorship is constantly accumulating by new contributions, and already amounts to creditable proportions. The books of the entire library in all its departments have been catalogued, and the legislature will be asked for an appropriation for its publication. Not until such publication will the people generally have an adequate idea of the magnitude and value of the library that has been so carefully and unostentatiously collected."

It is impossible, in a hastily written sketch like this, to give an adequate idea of the magnitude and usefulness of the library.
